Golden Rule Story Line

The show opens with Afterburner Bunny (a favorite of the kids) flying through on his motorcycle to remove the show clock and announce the beginning of the show. The title of the show, "Right In The Kisser" comes from the first skit when Granpa has to chase down his dog Fuzzball who sneaks up on Granpa and gives him a big lick on the face. Granpa gives Fuzzball a taste of his own medicine, which is what happens when you don't follow the golden rule, by giving him a big kiss. Then Granpa forgets The Golden Rule when he blames Granma for teaching the dog bad tricks and tries to get even by turning loose all her pet critters into her candies, treats and goodies. The big finale is when Granpa gets a taste of his own medicine as he gets sprayed by Squirt the Skunk.
